

For the last 5 years AVCP CEO Vivian Korthuis has advocated on behalf of the Western Alaska salmon crisis and has used an empty Ziploc bag to represent what families have been able to prepare and preserve for winter sustenance – nothing.